

Guest Book for Nicholas Freeman

April 8, 2008

- ✚ Nick, you were SUCH an amazing person. you always knew how to make people laugh, and you definately did. you always had a smile on your face and was always a happy person. everyone misses you...i mean, look at all of these comments from people who didnt even know you...you definately touched many peoples hearts. i mean, there is even a memorial facebook dedicated to you, and a youtube video, too. you definately were, and still are, loved.maybe you were just an angel sent down to teach a lesson. you taught us to be friends to people who are at loss, open up our hearts to anyone who needs it, and offer up a smile at any hard time. you were and still are a legacy and i know you are looking down at us now and probably just chillin' with God. my highest sympathy goes out to your whole family, your close friends, and basically anyone who you touched through your words, actions, and story. <3

- ✘ Freeman Family,
I didn't know Nick personally, but as a fellow senior, I have to say how truly sorry I am for your loss. I understand he was well loved, and I can assure you that the love people had for him will not fade, nor will the memories. Nothing can make the pain go away forever, but only time can make it hurt less.

My best wishes for your whole family

- Nick Freeman, your name sounds joyous man, i say it and just get happier. i never said it enough how much i loved you, how much of a great friend you were. You and Jess we're the best couple I've ever seen. You made all the days bearable, and all the hard times seem easy. I know you're still there, and i just want you to know i love you and will continue to live for you forever. I can't wait till i see you again, I dont think i will ever meet someone as funny, caring, loving, kind, and amazing as you, I love you.

Christian Mason (Springfield, VA)

- Nick,
I had some fun time with you in all of our classes together. I have many great memories from hanging out together & dancing at homecomings. You ALWAYS made me laugh, and you always knew what to say when I was down. I miss you so much already, however you're going to stay in my heart forever. I look at all of the pictures I took of us and they just warm my heart. You're such an amazing person.

Love you forever,

- Nick, We love you. We always will. Nothing can ever take place of the place you had in our hearts. You were such a fun loving guy. Happiness was brought to all those around you when you smiled. It just felt good to be around you. You were also always good for a laugh or joke. You could always lighten the mood. I'll always remember you, and the impact you had on my life. I love you, and miss you.

☒

Nick

Not a day will go by that I won't remember playing Uno with you at lunch, and joking and laughing, and planning to go see MSI live. I'll never forget that smile, it lit up the room and really let a person know you were listening and cared.

A piece of me went with you. And I'll miss you for as long as I live.

☒ Nick--

Even though we weren't as close as you and some of your other friends, you were still a good friend to me. We had 2 classes over the years, and sat next to each other in both. You were a really funny kid, and I will miss you more every time I have to walk into that English class. I know how much you loved Mrs. Beall!! And dude, you are still the only one who can take her to that 5 level, haha. Ill miss you man.

☒ Our hearts, thoughts, and prayers go out to the whole Freeman Family. It was an honor to coach Nick Freeman for 4 years on the West Springfield Ice Hockey Team. Our team is retiring his number and will always remember #3 on the ice and his friendly demeanor and genuine smile off the ice.

Eric Hardman (West Springfield, VA)

April 3, 2008

☒ Please know that your family is in the thoughts and prayers of many people. People who you may not even know. The loss of a child must be the hardest thing for any parent to go through and we wish we could take some of that pain from your family. Please know that we are thinking and praying for you, Nicholas, and his brothers and sisters.

Remigio & Joy Ferrara; St. B. family (Springfield, VA)

April 3, 2008

☒ Our hearts go out to you in this time of sorrow. Your son is remembered fondly by our daughter. Chelsea said he was one of the nicest guys she ever met; she remembers his smile and says he made her laugh often. Words cannot express our sadness and heartbreak for your family.
